“ Debbie and I were great friends through high school and beyond until she moved to Alberta and we lost touch. I remember her big heart and lots of laughter on our misadventures. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ My sincere sympathy to all Deb's family at this very sad time. Deb and I enjoyed a wonderful friendship beginning in grade 5 at Rivers elementary school. That friendship lasted and grew stronger until we graduated from grade 12 together. Loosing touch for several years didn't mean losing love for each other and our treasured memories. Many, many overnight stays at the Sykes family farm and the kindness I received from Lenore and the fun we had. Playing hide-n-seek in the dark with all Deb's brothers and sister. Going to movies, and a whole lot of silly stuff. Deb and I reconnected, albeit only by phone, in the last couple years and had many heartfelt conversations. Coffee together and a great big hug was on our to do list and sitting here now looking at her picture with a stab of pain in my heart knowing that we won't share the laughter that we would have if that coffee had taken place. But if I could, I would tell you Deb, that we grew together, we laughed together, we cried together, thanks for all that and more you were the best friend I ever had. Rest softly. I know how much you all will miss Deb's caring love. Cherish her memory.
